

57th Annual Convention Winners

Top Hand Award

Danny "Dan-O" Morris is always going the extra mile. For many years Dan-o has worked tirelessly at all of GCA's conferences. He helps with the food at Convention, Summer Conference, YCC Tour, Legislative Breakfast and Regional Roundup meetings. Several times over the past year, Dan-O has cooked 200+ steaks for the University of Georgia football team on behalf of GCA and the Georgia Beef board. He also volunteered his time to cook hamburgers and beef hotdogs at the Bulldogs and Buddies event for Extra Special People and the UGA football team. When Dan-o is in charge we know we don't have to worry - things will always be taken care of!

GCWA CattleWoman of the Year

GCWA's 2018 CattleWoman of the Year is Carol Williams. Carol's dedication to the beef and dairy industries is like no other. She is very active in the Georgia Dairy Youth Foundation, GCWA, and the Georgia Junior Livestock Foundation. Congratulations, Carol!

GCWA Hall of Fame Inductee

GCWA's 2018 Hall of Fame Inductee is Cynthia Douglas. Cynthia has been involved in the cattle industry since the day that she was born. Throughout her life, she was very active in FFA and 4-H as well as the livestock show circuit across Georgia and the Southeast. Cynthia has been active in GCWA and GCA for decades. Her hard work and dedication to the cattle industry is unmatched. Congratulations, Cynthia!

GCWA Friend of the CattleWomen

GCWA's 2018 Friend of the CattleWomen is Claudine Leachman. Claudine helps each year with the booth set up at The Sunbelt Expo. Whenever we need an extra hand, Claudine is always there to help.
